RAIN Source Capital is pleased to announce David L. Welliver of WellAdvised as a Certified Rainmaker. In this capacity David is responsible for identifying and organizing accredited investors into community-based angel investor groups to support local entrepreneurs who are leading early-stage private companies. Welliver is responsible for organizing funds in the Twin Cities metropolitan area, and in communities in Central to Northern Minnesota. RAIN Source Capital is the nation's leader in organizing angel investors into funds with 23 funds and counting; RAIN Source Capital's management team provides professional management services to its network of funds.

Steve Mercil, CEO of RAIN Source Capital said, "David is a wonderful addition to our efforts to organize accredited investors in Minnesota into angel funds. The time is right to gather like-minded investors to invest in early-stage companies and to benefit from the Minnesota Angel Tax Credit. His background as a CPA, entrepreneur and professional adviser provides a unique set of qualifications to help us meet the national demand for this program. He is ready to help us expand our program throughout Minnesota."

Welliver was recently recognized for his business leadership and tax expertise through an appointment to Minnesota Governor Tim Pawlenty's 21st Century Tax Reform Commission, where he chaired the Corporate Income Tax Working Group. He serves on the Leadership Cabinet of the Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants and is a member of the Minnesota High Tech Association and the Association for Corporate Growth. He has been active in the Saint Paul Chamber of Commerce and numerous community organizations including Habitat for Humanity and the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra. He has also served as a board member and treasurer for the Saint Paul Festival and Heritage Foundation, producers of the Saint Paul Winter Carnival.

Welliver is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Minnesota Society of Certified Public Accountants. He holds a B.A. in Business Administration from the University of St. Thomas.
